

CALL FOR PROPOSALS – TUTORIALS AND SPECIAL SESSIONS

BalkanCom 2023

Sixth International Balkan Conference on Communications and Networking

İstanbul, Türkiye, June 5-8, 2023

Towards 6G at the Crossroads of Civilization: Connected Intelligence and Sensing

In addition to exciting technical symposia and high-profile keynote speakers, BalkanCom 2023 will include special sessions and tutorials.

Special sessions will provide an opportunity to focus on a selected emerging topic in the domain of wireless communications, networking and signal processing, and may include a mix of regular papers and short invited talks.

Tutorials will provide a comprehensive overview of the state of the art on a selected emerging topic in the domain of wireless communications, networking and signal processing, in the format of a short (1.5 hour) and long (3h) tutorial.

We invite submissions for special session and tutorial proposals for BalkanCom 2023. Both special sessions and tutorials should aim to complement the conference technical program with emerging topics highlighting research and development challenges in development of next generation communication and networking technologies.

Special session/Tutorial proposals should be formatted as a 1-page document including:

- Title of the special session/tutorial
- Organisers (names, affiliations, contact information)
- For special sessions, one paragraph description and tentative list of authors/papers
- For tutorials, short abstract describing technical content of the tutorial
- Short bio of special session/tutorial organisers

Proposed special sessions/tutorials should be submitted by email to Tutorial chairs (Sasa Mrdovic - smrdovic@etf.unsa.ba, Dejan Vukobratovic – dejanv@uns.ac.rs).

Important Dates:

Submission deadline: 1 February 2023

Notification of acceptance: 10 February 2023
